

ALFinMOTION, Anna Lindh Foundation Mobility Programme (ALFinMOTION.Call@bibalex.org)

Open Call for Expression of Interest - deadline: 23 January 2023 (23:59 Central European Time)

In a post-Covid-19 recovery context the ALF is ensuring a thriving Civil Society National Networks through the ALFinMOTION, its interdisciplinary cross sectoral mobility programme across the region. Capitalising on the diversity of the ALF in both shores of the Mediterranean, it supports collaborative initiatives aiming at strengthening equal partnerships.

Each mobility submission must be presented by a host organisation (applicant) and can involve, depending on the mobility modality, up to two hosted organisations from the complementary shore of the Mediterranean*. The ALF network webpage (<https://www.annalindhfoundation.org/networks>) can help to make connections between ALF members.

The host organisation must be a legal entity and comply with the ALF communication and visibility guidelines (<https://communication.annalindh.org>) when implementing the intercultural dialogue initiative that benefits from this mobility call.

Purpose of the call

ALFinMOTION intends to be a stimulus to incite intercultural dialogue action between both shores of the Mediterranean through physical mobilities, involving diverse types of expertise, know-how and profiles, based on lump sum allocations to the host organisation. Mobilities must always imply the full proactive participation of the hosted organisations. A gender, age and geographic balance share between both shores of the Mediterranean must be observed.

To ensure to have enough time to meet with visa requirements, the proposed mobilities under this call can take place anytime between April and September 2023. The ALF Secretariat will provide letters of support for the selected submissions.

Mobility modalities

ALFinMOTION is structured in four modalities that respond to the different needs encompassing intercultural dialogue: Action, Knowledge, Partnership and Creativity.

Mobility for Action

The minimum duration of the stay abroad is two days for a maximum of two hosted organisations, each from two different countries

Its aim is to support the active involvement of Intercultural Dialogue actors in face-to-face intercultural dialogue initiatives carried out by the host organisation to improve the flow of expertise among specialists from complementary shores of the Mediterranean*. The number of hosted organisations mobilised for each submission cannot represent more than 20% of the total number of active participants in the proposed intercultural initiative. The proposed intercultural initiative, that may take different formats, must be published in the website/social media account of the host organisation by the deadline of this call.

Final reporting requirements: Nominative transportation ticket(s), communication supports and audiovisual materials produced, participation sheets, news elaborated following the guidelines for the ALF Corporate Website Network News Section

(<https://www.annalindhfoundation.org/sites/default/files/documents/page/NNG.pdf>) and an online evaluation report following the link that will be provided by the ALF Secretariat.

Mobility for Knowledge

The minimum duration of the stay abroad is seven days for a maximum of one hosted organisation

Its aim is the creation of tandems with Civil Society Organisations and Research/Academic Institutions (think-tanks, specialised research centres or universities) from complementary shores of the Mediterranean* to co-produce knowledge and generate new cross-sectoral/cross border knowledge on relevant aspects of Intercultural Dialogue. The ALF maintains co-ownership of the final knowledge product's publishing rights and intellectual property. Preference will be given to submissions related to the production of analytic/propositional documents, innovative approaches or new methodologies.

Final reporting requirements: Nominative transportation ticket, the final knowledge product, an executive summary elaborated and published following the guidelines for the ALF Intercultural Dialogue Resource Centre (https://www.annalindhfoundation.org/sites/default/files/documents/page/ALF_Intercultural%20Dialogue%20Resource%20Centre%20Guidelines.pdf) and an online evaluation report following the link that will be provided by the ALF Secretariat.

Mobility for Partnership

The minimum duration of the stay abroad is ten days for a maximum of two hosted organisations, each from two different countries

Its purpose is to contribute to the formation and the consolidation of partnerships between complementary shores of the Mediterranean* through the co-elaboration of project proposals related to concrete aspects of intercultural dialogue that address specific needs identified at the local, national or regional level to be submitted to national or international donors. The ALF will prioritise project proposals with innovative approaches and oriented towards youth, gender equality or with social inclusion purposes.

Final reporting requirements: Nominative transportation ticket(s), the concept note of the project proposal elaborated with the following minimum elements: Summary, Description and Relevance, following the ALF-provided template and an online evaluation report following the link that will be provided by the ALF Secretariat.

Mobility for Creativity

The minimum duration of the stay abroad is one month for a maximum of one hosted organisation

It invites creative agents of the Euro-Mediterranean space from various disciplines and sectors to co-create cultural/creative initiatives related to Intercultural Dialogue. The host organisation must provide the hosted creative organisation from complementary shores of the Mediterranean* with the space and means to work. The creative outcomes could be showcased at the premises of the ALF Secretariat in Alexandria and/or in some other countries upon agreement with the potential concerned ALF members of the Civil Society National Networks. Priority will be given to initiatives involving migrant collective.

Final reporting requirements: Nominative transportation ticket, communication supports and audio-visual materials produced, participation sheets, news elaborated following the guidelines for the ALF Corporate Website Network News Section

Pre-established lump sum allocations & payment modality

Lump sums and minimum duration of stays supported by the ALF for each modality are as follows:

Mobility Modalities	Maximum number of mobilised hosted organisations	Minimum duration of the stay abroad	Lump-sum per hosted organisation	Maximum contract value
Action	Up to 2 from different countries	2 days	900 euro	1.800 euro
Knowledge	1	7 days	1.200 euro	1.200 euro
Partnership	Up to 2 from different countries	10 days	1.100 euro	2.200 euro
Creativity	1	1 month	2.200 euro	2.200 euro

No pre-financing payments are foreseen. These allocations will be released as soon as the mobilities have taken place, upon reception and approval of the final reporting required documents. Upon request, a pre-financing equal to 60% of the lump sum amount can be issued. In those cases, the host organisation will assume the estimated cost of the bank transfers amounting 100 euro that will be deducted from the lump sum allocation.

Selection criteria

Selection criteria will be based on the quality of the complete mobility submissions received. Priority will be given to submissions where all the involved organisations are members of the Anna Lindh Foundation from the 41 National Networks and to submissions led by ALF members. A gender, youth and geographical balance between regions and countries must be observed. For the evaluation procedure, the following elements will be considered:

- Relevance of the proposed initiative in terms of Intercultural Dialogue as indicated in each modality
- Added value of the hosted organisation(s) in relation to the proposed initiative

- Relevance of the specific experience of the beneficiary(ies) in relation to the proposed mobility
- Profile/background complementarity between the host and the hosted organisation(s)
- Geographic complementarity between the host and the hosted organisation(s) and gender and youth (between 18 and 35 years old) balance

Background

The Anna Lindh Euro-Mediterranean Foundation for the Dialogue between Cultures, ALF, (<https://www.annalindhfoundation.org>) created in 2005 and based in Alexandria is an international intergovernmental organisation and its aim, according to its statutes, is to promote the dialogue between cultures and to contribute to the visibility of the Barcelona Process through intellectual, cultural and civil society exchanges.

To fulfil its objective, the Foundation mainstreams youth, gender equality and networking with a clear determination to lead regional and local intercultural dialogue initiatives that are useful for EuroMed societies and institutions with a very pragmatic approach. Its action grounds on the two main bodies of the Foundation: The Civil Society National Networks with more than 4.500 members and the 41 Members States of its Board of Governors.

Framework and financial allocation

This programme is developed in the framework of the Action Grant NDICI-GEO-NEAR/2022/434-371. The indicative overall amount allocated to this call is 95.000 euro. The ALF Secretariat reserves the right not to disburse all available funds.
